Summer 2015 - Proposal for Funded Programming
Summer Quarter Dates are July 1st - August 15th
(College is closed 7/3)
Proposal Due Date: May 8th, 2015

FACULTY COMMONS
Bellevue College

How does the Faculty Commons Handle Funding for Programming?
Visit our Funding & Stipend Processes page on the Faculty Commons website.

First Name: Last Name   SID: Division:

E-mail: Proposal Title:

Will there be a co-facilitator/
instructor? (optional)   Name(s) of co-facilitator/instructor (optional)

Yes   No

For examples of previously accepted workshops, refer to past Faculty Commons Quarterly Schedules

Proposal Description:

Proposal Outcomes:

Delivery Type:

How many people are you anticipating to attend?

    Online   Hybrid   In person

Which of the core themes of Bellevue College does it affect?

Please explain:

    Student Success

    Teaching and Learning Excellence

    College Life and Culture

    Community Engagement and Enrichment

Which of the Five Pillars of the Faculty Commons does your proposal support?   Please explain:

   Supporting and implementing faculty ideas and innovation

   Providing professional development for faculty

   Creating community and relationships

   Fostering renewal and vibrancy

   Generating revenue

Estimated Budget :
In your budget please list estimates for materials, resources, and any proposed development stipends. View the Faculty Commons Funding & Stipend Processes

What are your media needs? (laptop, projector, technology classroom, etc.)

Proposed Number of Sessions	Proposed Length of Sessions	Proposed Dates and Times of Program

---

Assessment & Projected Outcomes

What are some ways that the proposed workshop could impact teaching and learning of program participants?

What are some tangible learning outcomes that the participants will gain from the proposed workshop? (e.g. participants construct a new syllabus, perform presentations that demonstrate apprehension of material, assign/review homework assignments)

Notes:

Attachment